BE A PART OF A TEAM

As a State Teen Panel (STP) member, you become a part of something bigger! You will gain valuable training in resilience, leadership, communication, and group facilitation. You will participate in project planning, promotion of the Youth Program mission, and in activities that strengthen your leadership and communication skills. You will experience being mentored, as well as opportunities to mentor peers and younger youth in priceless life skills. You will gain volunteer hours for school clubs, jobs, and/or college goals. Most importantly, you will serve alongside incredible leaders, just like you!

Use Your Talents

Whether you are super organized, incredibly artistic, love to plan, have a knack for leadership, are social-media savvy, or just like to sit back and take notes, there is a place for you. The STP is a team made up of military kids from all different walks of life with an array of different skills and talents that all come together to carry on the Youth Program mission, purpose, and goals.

Be a Voice

STP members act as the voice of all National Guard teens and youth throughout the state of Virginia. Every military kid has a story. As a STP member, you have the incredible opportunity to represent youth and teens with stories just like yours.
